

Elders, Class of 2025

Grant Armistead is originally from Dover, DE, Grant and states that he “was in one of the last dumb classes to go to Wake Forest University, where he barely graduated in 1991.” Grant (aka, Mr. Ashley Armistead) and Ashley joined Selwyn Avenue Presbyterian Church in 1997, where they raised their two boys, Grant and Connor. The Armisteads have a dog named Daisy who loves Grant more than Ashley and their sons. When not working, Grant enjoys beating (routinely and quite easily) his college roommate, Kris Phillips (also a SAPC member) at golf. Grant has previously served as an Elder.

Jodie Bolewitz joined Selwyn in 2008. She has previously served on the Session, was the moderator of the Child Development Center Group, and also served on the team supporting the SAPC 75th Anniversary Fund. Jodie works for RSM, an accounting and consulting firm on the national marketing team. She and her husband Mike have three children, all graduates of the Selwyn Child Development Center.

Libby Guinan has been a member of Selwyn Church since the 70's. Her daughter, Betsey, grew up in the church attending Sunday School, youth group and participating in many opportunities offered by Selwyn. Libby and her husband, Richard, have a blended family with a total of four adult children and eight grandchildren. A graduate of Queens, Libby is now retired from a long career in post-secondary education administration. She now spends time with family and enjoys time on Bald Head Island, skiing, traveling, and pursuing a variety of interests. Libby shares, “Selwyn has always felt like home to me. I totally appreciate the welcoming attitude of the members and staff, the atmosphere of respect and inclusiveness, and the strong commitment to community outreach.”

Christy Horne has been a member of Selwyn since 2001. This is her second time serving as an Elder. Her husband of 25 years is Charles Horne and they have two amazing children, Hampton, a Junior at Appalachian State University and Liza, a Freshman at the University of Tennessee. Christy has been a Selection Coordinator/Interior Design for Mills Eloge's Custom Homes for almost six years. She and Charles enjoy being empty nesters with new time for travel, hikes, and reading.

Hannah King, along with husband Bailey, have two boys, Charlie (3½) and Henry (20 months). They joined Selwyn in 2017. Hannah was born and raised in Charlotte and graduated from Clemson University in 2007. The family loves to attend Clemson and Wofford football games whenever possible. She is an Area Sales Manager for PaceMate, a digital health company for Cardiac Remote Monitoring. Hannah and Bailey served as SAPC Youth Volunteers from 2018-2020, until their second son was born. Hannah considers these years to have been special in forming relationships within the church. These relationships have expanded as her family has grown, and Charlie and Henry adore these special friends. Hannah looks forward to serving the church and continuing to build friendships.

Roy Koppelman and his wife, Katie, joined SAPC in 2021 and together they enjoy parenting three “Koppel-kids” (Casey age 5, Caroline 3, and Carter 1½). Originally from Chicago and a graduate of Northwestern University, Roy has lived in Charlotte for ten years. At his former church Roy was a trustee leading renovation projects for the congregation. He’s a commercial real estate investor and home developer. In his spare time Roy is an avid reader, enjoys volleyball and boating, and spending time with the family at Lake Lure. He also enjoys coaching and mentoring other real estate investors. Roy loves the Chicago Cubs.

Susan Lemmon and her husband John, joined SAPC in 1988 and raised their two sons, Scott and Nick, here. The daughter of a Methodist Minister, she grew up in different South Carolina towns, but calls Columbia home. Susan has a Master's degree in Social Work from USC and retired after working in Mental Health programs for 30 years, early on as a therapist with adults, and later as a developmental specialist with young children and their parents. She loves spending time with her five grandchildren, viewing independent films, and trying new vegetarian recipes. She was a Loaves and Fishes volunteer before the pandemic. Susan was previously ordained as a Deacon at Selwyn. Her longest SAPC commitments have been the Selwyn Life Sunday School Class and the Intercessory Prayer Group. She is so glad to be back in Sunday School and Worship in person!

Althea Muldrew is a rising senior at Myers Park High School. She is the daughter of Todd Muldrew and Casey Cothran, and older sister to Ben Muldrew. She loves days at the lake, baking, art, reading stories, and time with family and her pets. Althea is active in Selwyn’s youth program in many ways, including Appalachia Service Project, attending Montreat Youth Conference, Youth Game Nights, and Second Sunday Service. Althea’s kindness and welcoming spirit can be seen in many ways; Althea is the first to welcome a younger youth into a game, lend a close ear to a friend in need, and always offers a helping hand. Althea is nominated to serve a one-year term as Youth Elder.

Tracie Northan has been a member of Selwyn Avenue Presbyterian Church since 2014. She and her husband, Mark, have been married for 19 years and have two daughters. Emma is a sophomore at Myers Park High School and Meredith is a 7th grader at Alexander Graham Middle School. Tracie is a member of the Presbyterian Women’s Circle - Daughters of Faith and has been a dedicated volunteer at her girls’ schools. She and her daughters were baptized together at SAPC by Lori Raible on July 20, 2014.

Bobby Yurkutat has been a member of Selwyn since November 2020, and joined with his family, wife Barbara and children Anna Grace and Caroline (both 15). He has held leadership positions in previous churches and has served on non-profit boards as well. He enjoys travel, hiking, and sports, especially Wake Forest (Go Deacs!). He works at Truist in Human Resources. He and his family relocated to Charlotte about two years ago as a result. Bobby is excited and thankful to serve Selwyn in this capacity.
